President Harding Asked to Call Conference to Study the Question

The program of legislation which the Republican party has planned for the extra session of Congress is an unusually long one and the items thereon are unusually perplexing. If the Cabinet members are agreed as one man on everything which the President will suggest in his message, and on everything which, not finding a place in his message, has been suggested to Congress as the Presidential will, it has reached a high mark in concord of opinion. The hope is that it is not merely complacency of opinion.

"GERMANY MUST PAY."

In the matter of the Hughes notes on the German indemnity it might have been expected that the cabinet members, being Americans all, would be of one mind. They were, and if ever there was any doubt in Mr. Harding's mind as to what course he should take on this subject it speedily vanished when he found that from the top of the table to its foot—and at the foot today sits Vice-President Coolidge—his counsellors said, "Germany must pay."

One hears that the opinions of all the cabinet members are not asked on certain subjects. This is natural enough, because certain legislative matters concern themselves almost entirely with individual details. For example, the consent, and the chief of each department is the man whose word has weight in the specific things which affect his work and his policies.

It is probable that Mellon has more to say about taxation legislation than any other member of the Cabinet, but it can be said that the things which he has approved have met with the nod of approval from his colleagues.

The time probably will come when there will be a break in the compactness of Cabinet opinions. It is said that Mr. Wilson used to make up his mind what he wanted to do, and then when the Cabinet members were asked what they thought about it the President went ahead and did what he wanted irrespective of their approval or disapproval.

Possibly it is not quite so bad as this, but the history of the Wilson administration will show that.

Procedure was encouraged by the Aach-Commins Act and would avoid the end of the strike, the Labor Board.

The President to the President of the labor unions proposed that the wage disputes be held in abeyance until the end of the year, and that the management of the question of rates. It included twelve points which were decried as "unreasonable" and "untenable" and "inadmissible," which would have to be settled at the suggested conference. W. L. Park of Chicago, one of those whose terms expire, is generally expected to be given a reappointment. Mr. Park represents the railway managers group and is said to have been given general indorsement for another term. Strong pressure has been brought to bear for the reappointment also of A. J. Forrester, representing the labor group, although a number of others, including J. G. Lührsen, of Chicago, are understood to be still in the running for the labor appointment.

Widest speculation has surrounded appointment of a board member to represent the general public in succession to Henry T. Hunt of Cincinnati, the third member of the board, whose term expires April 15.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

SACRAMENTO, April 8.—Rival efforts of Van Nuys and Riverside to obtain the location of a State college of agriculture resulted, it was asserted today, in a bill by the Legislature to set up this important Southern California project.

A clash of interests between the counties, emphasized by a recent disagreement between representatives from San Fernando Valley and Riverside as to facts and figures in connection with the proposed college, has caused the bill to take final steps in the Legislature.

The Riverside faction, backed by the University of California, is insistent that the State should carry out the terms of the agreement made in 1915, when the State took final steps in the agricultural school in the south.

WILL REPORT TARIFF BILL

Measure is Coming Up in Congress Monday.

Need of Aiding Farmer is Given Stress.

Revival of Agriculture to Aid Unemployed.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, April 8.—Members of the House Ways and Means Committee tonight adopted the subcommittee report to accompany the introduction in Congress Monday of the emergency tariff bill. The report was written by Representative Young of North Dakota, chairman of the committee. The subcommittee report is a study of the emergency tariff bill which was introduced in the last session by President Wilson. The report was written by Representative Young of North Dakota, chairman of the committee. The subcommittee report is a study of the emergency tariff bill which was introduced in the last session by President Wilson.

In recommending passage of the tariff bill the report declares that revival of all business is largely dependent upon restoration to the farmers of their lost purchasing power, adding that conditions have changed with respect to the buying of the agricultural interests to the point of their products at reasonable prices.

The paralysis of agriculture has not forced a reduction in prices of commodities which the farmers buy, the report says, and warns against a complete collapse of the lines of trade unless the food production of the nation is encouraged. "The consuming public and the commercial markets also concern themselves," the report says, "in the revival of agriculture to aid the unemployed."

"If he must sell his commodities below cost of production for a time of years, he must either go out of business or lower his standard of living to the extent that he becomes a public menace. In either case the consumer will suffer from reduced supplies."

Danger of permitting a continued dumping of foreign products into American markets also concerns the committee, the report says, predicting that if this continues there will be a more rapid depletion in the ranks of the farmers than has been the case even in the face of adverse marketing of home products.

The report says the revival of agriculture, with its consequent advantageous reaction on other lines, would aid in providing employment for hundreds of thousands of men now unemployed and denies that the proposed measure would have the effect of advancing retail prices.

Democratic members of the committee are drafting a statement of views opposing passage of the measure.

WEYGAND ASKS ALLIES' UNION

Only Way to Make Germany Pay, He States.

Victory for Nation Aids Military.

Prison American Troops for Part in Conflict.

(BY HENRY WALES.)

PARIS, April 8.—A firm union of all the nations which fought side by side in the great war is necessary to make Germany pay the reparations, said Gen. Weygand, chief of staff of the French army, in an interview granted a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune.

The future attitude of Germany largely on the decision the nations take regarding Upper Silesia, the general declared. "In accordance with this decision Germany will make different proposals regarding reparations. If Germany is allowed a part of Upper Silesia Germany will be strengthened, and the reparations will be strengthened for the restoration of Germany."

In the original draft of the treaty of Versailles, Upper Silesia was awarded to Poland. When the Germans objected foreign influences intervened and a plebiscite was substituted. In view of the vote just taken, the only course is to give the region to Poland.

WYGAND TO FRANCE.
Speaking reparations, he said: "We must realize that France will be the world battlefield, and a result suffered to an extent to other countries did. For this reason it is certain compensation for the wrongs she has suffered. We may well ask how can Germany be made to pay, and the nations which fought side by side in the best means for making her pay. If Germany knew that we would not accept a plebiscite in the region which she opposed her in the war were united in a desire to give her to fulfill her obligations, she would not dare to oppose."

"We that the great crisis is over, every nation is inclined to consider less individual interests first and the interests of all the Allies are united. We shall never forget the cordial understanding and friendly assistance which has always marked America's high command."

Regarding Franco-American cooperation, Gen. Weygand said: "We have not forgotten the splendid troops displayed in the last month of the war. They were not last long enough to give them full value, they were a brilliant part in the war. We shall never forget the cordial understanding and friendly assistance which has always marked America's high command."

PRESIDENT AND CABINET AS ONE

The President was the Cabinet. Mr. Harding is too deeply committed to the "best mind" of the country to allow him to follow the will of the masses. He asks his Cabinet members to stand by him, and they tell him that they will. He then usually is an obedient man. Up to date it is said that the adjustments have been in accordance with the President's wishes. It is only human to expect that things will come.

CONSERVATION PROBLEM.
It is a poor business probably to make a subject upon which a man may come between the President and his Cabinet, or any one member thereof. The suggestion comes that a subject which will be a large part in sending one administration onto the rocks—conservation.

Secretary of the Interior Fall is a conservationist of the Roosevelt school, one of the Wilsons. He is not for Roosevelt and was known as a progressive, but in conservation matters he has been a conservative. It will not be long before Congress will attempt conservation legislation, and then one may look for trouble.

Conservation campaign leading conservationists of the school of thought are not satisfied with Mr. Harding's views on the subject. Gifford Pinchot has said that on conservation matters, Harding is all right. Pinchot and Secretary Fall, however, are as far apart in their views as the North Pole and the South Pole. Mr. Fall is from the personal liberty league and what constitutes a proper observance of the Sabbath.

ETER NEVER CLOSE.
Conservation matters are watched in the Senate by eyes that never sleep and are reduced even much more. It has been this way for years and it has not been so of the public domain for the use of the people, and precious little revenue.

His "best minds" have passed into the bromide stage, but he did something for himself when he consulted with men, even if the flippant did say his thoughts on best minds were not in themselves of a best mind character.

Evidence Shows Wilson Failed at Proper Time.

(BY RALPH COURTNEY.)

PARIS, April 8.—The European powers already are preparing when the time comes to express the fullest sympathy, but little else, with the position taken by the Harding government in its recent note on the question of mandates which was sent to the principal Allied powers.

Both France and Great Britain are officially mute, but the understanding is that the United States will not find its case such plain sailing as it possibly expects.

In the first place the Allied powers will reply to the United States that this question cannot be settled except at a round table conference. The Washington government will be invited to send a representative to the Supreme Council or to some other international conference body to examine fully all the evidence connected with the discussion in Paris of the question of the disposition of Yap and Mesopotamia.

The evidence will show that Mr. Wilson failed to take the strong stand which he should have maintained if the United States intended to hold its ground.

Approximately the same negative attitude is attributed to the former American President in regard to the island of Yap as in the case of Shantung. Persons who pretend to know what was taking place in Mr. Wilson's mind at the time of the peace conference and are conscious of his reaction to these important affairs believe that the ex-President's lack of positiveness in the cases of both Shantung and Yap was due to a deliberative policy which might have been taken one, but one which he hoped would eventually prove best in the world settlement. For instance, it is suggested that Mr. Wilson feared the consequences of insisting positively upon the internationalization of the island of Yap so he thought best to leave America's position negative at first, hoping for a later adjustment.

President Wilson, it is affirmed, feared the future war between the United States and Japan and looked to the League of Nations eventually to prevent this calamity. He acquired the conviction in the long conferences at Paris that if he insisted on settlement of, for instance, the Shantung question strictly in accord with American ideas, Japan would withdraw from the Supreme Council and refuse to enter the League.

The moment came when the ex-President had to choose Japan's exit from the League and the Shantung arrangement provided in the final treaty. He decided to accept the latter alternative, believing that if Japan were bound up with all the other powers in a world-wide association which was to prevent all future wars and injustices, Japan would be constrained at the proper time under pressure from all sides to thousands of tourists from every State, is dead at Longmont following an operation.

CHINESE GAMBLER KILLED IN HOME.

NEWCASTLE SHERIFF'S OFFICE ATTRIBUTES MURDER TO MAN UNLUCKY AT CARDS.

NEWCASTLE, April 8.—Wong Lot Man, 60 years old, a Chinese gambler, was killed here this afternoon as he was standing at the door of his home in Chinatown. When the shots were fired all the residents of the quarter rushed to cover and no one can be found who actually saw the shooting.

Deputy Sheriff Jack Shannon, who examined the body, says that the assassin must have stood close to Wong's back the four shots. Powder marks were found on the dead man's clothes.

Wong had been winning a large amount of money lately and it is the theory of the Sheriff's office that he may have been killed by an unlucky card player. It is not known if he belonged to any of the Chinese tong, but he was a close friend of Lee Him, the leader of the Bing Kongs in Newcastle.

SACRAMENTO, April 8.—Colonel Dent with receipt of a telephone report from Newcastle that a Chinese man had been killed there this afternoon, the office of Sheriff Ellis Jones here received word from Penryn to watch for a party of five Chinese, who were going to Sacramento from Newcastle in an automobile. They rushed through Penryn at a great speed.

Residents of the Chinese section here disappeared from the streets as soon as news spread of the Newcastle murder.

CHICAGO PLANNING CURB ON CABARETS.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

CHICAGO, April 8.—Chicago today took an important step toward curbing law violators and improving the morals of the city. Cabarets, at present paying no license and selling drinks at fancy prices, will hereafter have to pay a fee of $150 to $200 a year and they must close at 1 a. m. There are now 450 cabarets, many of them resorts of gunmen, vicious women, thieves of all degrees and breeding spots for crime. It is predicted the license fee and rigid police inspection will reduce this number to 150. These will be the larger places, which will pay the maximum fee.

DECREE AND AUTO GIVEN AT HEARING.

Disclosures by Detectives Aired in Divorce Suit of Wealthy Woman.

After a bitter contest, Mrs.
Gertrude Hanlin, a wealthy woman, was granted a decree of divorce from Edward Hanlin and the custody of a Buick automobile in Judge Summerfield's court yesterday.

The trial lasted a week.
Mrs. Hanlin has an income of about $2500 a month. She testified that after she married Mr. Hanlin she would not work, and she had to support him. She also charged him with misconduct with another woman, and the court found him guilty of this.

Private detectives worked up a case against Mr. Hanlin. An advertisement was placed in the papers following the disclosures, and one of the detectives was shot and a bullet accidentally wounded a young daughter of Mrs. Hanlin by her former husband.

Mrs. Hanlin denied the wife's charges. He declared he had worked for her. Mrs. Hanlin asserted she gave him the money to buy the automobile and he bought it in his own name.

The recovery of the car was one of the features of the case.

Former Judge Thomas White represented Mrs. Hanlin.

At a get-together meeting
and smoker of old and new members of the Union League Club last night, $25,000 was pledged in cash and new memberships. This sum will be expended in completing the remodeling and equipping of the club's new quarters, the former Young Women's Christian Association building, on Hill, near Third, which was purchased several months ago for $175, 000.

Judge Weller, president of the club, called the meeting in order to announce the completion of the remodeling, and if possible, and this amount was oversubscribed by $500, at the gathering of between 200 and 400 of the club members. Those who did not subscribe in cash pledged all the way from one to ten memberships.

Under the leadership of A. M.
White, chairman of the membership committee, an intensive drive has been started, and it is believed the desired quota of 2500 members will be obtained before the campaign is finished.

SHIP OVERDUE; REPORT MUTINY.

Radio Stations Can't Locate Big Freighter Willhilo.

Private Word is That Cruiser is Convoing Steamer.

Liner Has Steel, Other Cargo for Los Angeles Firms.

The whereabouts of the Williams Line Steamship Willhilo, nine days overdue here and reported to be on the way to the harbor under armed convoy of the U.S.S. Tacoma following a mutiny off La Union, Salvador, several days ago, remained a mystery up to an early hour this morning, so far as the naval authorities and agents of the company are concerned.

Naval radio stations in San Francisco, San Diego and Los Angeles Harbor and commercial wireless stations carrying messages from the Pacific Coast and the local offices of the Williams Line had been unable, up to midnight, to communicate with the Willhilo or the Tacoma and learn what had delayed the big freighter or caused the report of the mutiny.

This is the information given out last night by Samuel L. Kreider and J. W. Chapman, Los Angeles and San Francisco agents of the Williams Line. The Willhilo, formerly the United States Shipping Board vessel Conchochock, 16,200 tons, left New York March 5 for Los Angeles, San Francisco, Portland and Seattle. More than 100 tons of steel and general merchandise consigned to firms here are on board.
The steamship left Philadelphia March 18, sailed from Balboa, Canal Zone, March 20, and was due here April 1.

ACCOUNT FOR DELAY.
The report of the mutiny and the armed convoy came in a private message, received by a Los Angeles man in response to his inquiry in New York, when the Willhilo was expected to arrive on Tuesday.
The message was as follows:
"Willhilo delayed account mutiny aboard. Now proceeding under convoy U.S.S. Tacoma."

The Tacoma, according to naval records, is a cruiser of the third-class, assigned to patrol duty in Central American waters.

The message from New York was relayed by Mr. Kreider to the San Francisco offices of the Williams Line, and there became public.
All efforts to reach Tacoma or the Will-hilo for the confirmation of the report failed. Attempts to confirm the fact that the Tacoma was proceeding northward with the ship, by communicating with the Canal Zone naval base, to which the Tacoma is attached, also were without result up to a late hour last night.

Under the leadership of A. M.
White, chairman of the membership committee, an intensive drive has been started, and it is believed the desired quota of 2500 members will be obtained before the campaign is finished.

At a get-together meeting
and smoker of old and new members of the Union League Club last night, $25,000 was pledged in cash and new memberships. This sum will be expended in completing the remodeling
and equipping of the club's new quarters, the former Young Women's Christian Association building, on Hill, near Third, which was purchased several months ago for $175,

PLAN TO WIDEN FIFTH ADOPTED.

Committee Will so Report to Planning Commission.

Eighty-Foot Street Through to Boylston Favored.

Commercial Need Will Force Leveling Normal Hill.

Paving the way for a tremendous improvement of Fifth street from Broadway to Boylston street, the City Planning Commission will at its meeting next Tuesday afternoon receive a joint report from its Streets and Public Buildings Committee recommending the widening of the street to eighty feet and cutting through Normal Hill to form a new great highway to the west. If this street is widened as recommended, Manager John P. Kennedy, head of the Fifth Street Association, told the members of the committee of the commission that the owners of the properties on the south side of Fifth street between Broadway and Hill street and between Olive street and Grand avenue will donate the twenty feet of land necessary for the widening.

Mr. Kennedy told the commissioners that two large modern buildings are being planned to be built on the site of the old Fifth Street Store, for that concern, and a new building on the southwest corner of Fifth street and Hill street.
If the street is widened.

NEW HOTEL PLANNED.
On this block between Olive and Grand avenues and extending to the south as far as the Pacific Mutual Building, Mr. Kennedy said, it is planned to build a $1,500,000 hotel, and he said that the owners of the land facing Fifth street would donate the twenty feet necessary for the widening. The city would be required to provide for the taking of twenty feet from that part of Parish Square facing on Fifth street.

The motion adopted by the joint committees of the City Planning Commission, which is expected next Tuesday and then forwarded to the City Council, is as follows:
"The Tacoma, according to naval
records, is a cruiser of the third-
class, assigned to patrol duty in Central American waters."

The message from New York was relayed by Mr. Kreider to the San Francisco offices of the Williams Line, and there became public.
All efforts to reach Tacoma or the Will-
hilo for the confirmation of the report failed. Attempts to confirm the fact that the Tacoma was proceeding
northward with the ship, by communicating with the Canal Zone
naval base, to which the Tacoma
is attached, also were without result up to a late hour last night.

Launching an extensive program of activities for the immediate development of religious education among the young people of Southern California, the Los Angeles County Sunday-school Association has arranged for three large conferences in this city and Pasadena next week, and part of the following week. In conjunction with the various religious groups who take part in the conferences will be many prominent business men, who have declared their realization of the need for more spiritual education of youths if crime and misery is to be driven out of the communities of Southern California.

Announcements will be made in most of the churches of Los Angeles tomorrow of the great county adult Bible class conference which will be held at Immanuel Presbyterian Church on Thursday and Friday. This conference, at which many of the most prominent pastors and business men of Los Angeles will speak, is the first of its kind to be held in Southern California. The theme is "New Ideals in Our Educational System."

The two-day sessions will be conducted under the auspices of the Los Angeles County Sunday-school Association, with elaborate banquets at two churches for the men and women's classes on Friday evening.

Present-day religious educational problems confronting the churches of Southern California will be discussed by leaders of that work from various parts of the southern county.

A few of the many speakers will be Dr. John Gardner of Riverside, Rev. Lincoln A. Ferris of San Diego, Prof. John G. Hill of the University of Southern California, Prof. Ernest J. Lickley of Los Angeles, Dr. James A. Francis, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Rev. Frank W. Dell, pastor of First Friends Church, C. C. Chapman of Fullerton, Mayor W. T. Loebl of Long Beach, and E. P. Clark of Los Angeles.

A feature of the conference will be the awarding of silver cup, flag and photograph trophies to the churches establishing records for conference attendance and Sunday-school activities. The trophies have been donated by several prominent local firms and it is announced that the various men's and women's Bible classes are working hard to become the winners in the contest.

The adult Bible class conference will be closely followed by the county convention of the Los Angeles County Sunday-school Association, to be held in Pasadena on the 18th and 19th insts. Gen. Jose Miguel Gomez, who failed of election as President of the Cuban republic, is in Washington trying to have the result of the election thrown out on the ground that it does not represent the will of the Cuban people. But the president and his Cabinet, all to see something commendable in the election. The result of the election seems no menace either to Cuban or American interests on the island.

The sale of a quarter section of oil land in what is known as the Hills district to E. L. Halfon, something less than a half-million dollars recalls the fact that the Southern Pacific Railroad years ago lot of money a few years ago. There was no oil in that section. Of the three men who were that testimony—Charles R. Lester, off San Francisco, representing the Southern Pacific; Warren T. Miller, who appeared for the government; and Leo Longley, was the one who all are dead. Longley was the one to go and he was followed by Miller, and Lester in the order named.

THE SPIRIT OF NIGHT.
The fairy glades are calling.
The sun is hanging low.
The evening shadows are falling.
The world is all aglow.
The robin is singing.
The whippoorwill is singing.
The call of nature rings.
Insistently.

The rustle of the green boughs.
The monarch, Wind, goes by.
The interrupted night drowses.
As screech-owls weirdly cry.
The insect wings are humming.
The leaves so softly rustling.
The Spirit of Night is coming.
To Paradise.

EGGS SAN DIEGO PEACE JUSTICE.
Woman Scores Three Hits in as Many Throws.
Gets Hundred and Fifty Days After Court Attack.

San Diego, April 8.—County Justice J. Edward Keating was boned with eggs in his court this afternoon by Mrs. Bertha Polak of East San Diego, who was arraigned before him on a charge of having violated her probation, granted after she was convicted recently of disturbing the peace. When the testimony of the prosecution had been heard Judge Keating asked the woman if she had anything to say.

"Yes, I have," she replied. "You think you're a judge, don't you? Well, you're not. Before the court attendants could reach her, she snatched an egg from her handbag and threw it at the judge a few feet away. It struck his head, and the contents were liberally spread over the rest of his body.

As the judge tried to dodge, Mrs. Polak hit him with another egg, and as he tried to hide behind his desk, a third egg landed on the back of his neck. Then she was seized and led away.

The judge kept his temper, laughingly said that he felt like an omelette and then retired to his private room to get clean clothes. Mrs. Polak had been sentenced to pay a fine of $150 or serve 150 days in jail. She was sent to jail after the attack today.

The eggs were all fresh.

OUTPUT DOUBLED IN LESS THAN MONTH.

TIRE PRODUCTION AT LOCAL GOODYEAR PLANT TO GET ANOTHER BOOST.

The Los Angeles plant of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company of California has more than doubled its output in less than a month, A. P. Osterich, vice-president and general manager, announced yesterday. Production will be advanced to 1600 tires daily beginning Monday, he said. This will be an increase of 900 tires a day since March 18. The new schedule will place the output within 500 of the peak reached last September.

The tube output will be increased to 1320 daily, a 125 per cent gain over the low production point of last December. Demand by the Ford plants at Seattle, San Francisco and Denver has contributed to the increase.

"Our March business totaled $1,000,000," Mr. Osterich said. "This is an increase of $200,000 over February. Our April business to date is well ahead of last month. Our increased production does not involve employment of any men outside of those who were in our factory when the slump came last fall, and we will continue hiring only former employees."

Chiropractor Put on Trial for Practicing Without a License from State.

Judge Myers's court boasted a manless jury yesterday. Twelve women sat on the jury that tried Harry St. Clair, a chiropractor, for practicing without a State license. The court will issue its instructions on Monday.

This is the first time in the history of the county that twelve women have tried a case. The public will soon be able to learn whether twelve women can, without the guidance of man, come to a speedy conclusion. Ten of the twelve jurors are club women, used to debates and to forming opinions. The Ebell claims four members, the Friday Morning Club, four, and the Woman's Club of Santa Monica and the City Club, one each on the jury.

Bailiff Perdue says it is the pleasantest job he has ever had.

JUDGED GUILTY ON HALF PINTS.

Man Said Trunks Had Been Switched, but Jurors Thought Otherwise.

Last fall, Paul E. Shindler, a shoe salesman of this city, made a trip to El Paso, Tex.
As he intended to stay two days, he took along with him a big Saratoga trunk. He said he had his clothes in the trunk.

On the return of the trunk it was confiscated at the Arcade station by Special Agent Johnson of the United States Treasury Department.

But instead of containing clothing, there were forty-seven half-pints of whiskey.

Shindler told the jury in U. S. District Judge Bledsoe's court yesterday that somebody changed trunks on him, but the jury spent only about ten minutes finding him guilty under both counts of an indictment charging him with having the liquor in his possession and with transporting it.

"Don't it beat all how folks are misunderstood," said Shindler softly as he was returned to the County Jail.

men was taken but there was no official report on the crime.

The trouble that led to the killing of Lugo dates back to 1912. It is said, when Agent Will Stanley was killed by Ambrosio Apapas and his gang of turbulent red men, but the immediate inciting cause of the bloodshed was the fact that John Lugo had been appointed by the courts as guardian of the estate of Nazario Lugo, grandson of Francisco Lugo. The father and mother of Nazario died of influenza within a few weeks of each other. The section of Lugo was distasteful to Lugo. He declared Lugo was dis-satisfying the property that had descended to the boy from his parents.

This consisted of the most valuable part of the estate. At the trial of Ambrosio Apapas, nine years ago for the killing of Agent Stanley, Francisco Lugo was lined up with the enemies of Stanley, and Lugo gave his assistance to the government in running down the murderers of Stanley.

The grand jury made a trip to the County Jail yesterday to see the crowded condition and to ascertain how the Federal prisoners were being cared for. It is likely the result of their observations will be incorporated in a report to the Federal court. The need of additional room at the County Jail was strongly impressed on the members of the body who made the visit.

Incidents were returned against Jack A. Blum, under arrest at Bakersfield on a charge of violating Mann white slave law and against John Kitzner and Claude Rush, charged with violation of the immigration laws in smuggling Chinese into the country.

CONVICT LURE WOMAN.

Enticed Men Into Alley. Where They Were Robbed, Jurors Find.

After four hours of deliberation a jury in Judge Willis's court yesterday found Mabel Pinkston guilty of robbery. The defendant and Madge Rhodes were accused of luring John Garrity and H. R. Green into an alley on Fifth street, where Harry C. West and W. C. Morgan are said to have held them up. Deputy Atty. Heinecke conducted the prosecution. The court set Tuesday as the time for sentence.

It will be complete in every detail, at Bell, as a large crowd is expected for the opening of the new market.

LACK OF CREDIT STOPPED SALES.

Head of Bankers' Association Addresses Institute.

Says Europe Cannot Buy from Us Without Financing.

Cessation of Loans Was Dam-to Production Here.

What John S. Drum, president of the American Bankers' Association and foremost figure in the impressive plan to refinance commercial Europe, called "The Problem of the World," held the spotlight in the most important meeting in the history of the Los Angeles chapter of the American Institute of Banking in the City Club banquet room last evening.

The meeting was notable for the presence of Mr. Drum, the executive head of the bankers of America; Stewart D. Beckley, of Dallas, Tex., president of the American Institute of Banking, with a membership of 12,000; J. B. McCargar of San Francisco, president of the California Bankers' Association; Henry M.
Robinson, president of the First National Bank of Los Angeles and the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank, a national figure in foreign trade, shipping and finance, and a distinguished group of Southern California bank presidents and representative financiers. The 1500 membership of the local club was represented by as many as could be crowded into the room.

PROVINCIALISM ENDED.

George R. Kingston, president of the chapter, turned the meeting over to Leo Chandler, vice-president of the California Bank, who was toastmaster. Mr. McCargar brought the greetings of the State bankers. Mr.
Robinson discussed the advantages of proper instruction. Mr. Chandler, in the rallying of the local club banks, under the initiative of Mr.
Robinson, to the aid of Arizona, and President Beckley delivered a dynamic address of especial import to those interested in the internal affairs and development of the A. I. B.

The A. I. B. is a national organization, the purpose of which is to bring about a better understanding of the financial crisis which now confronts the United States, and the necessity of meeting that crisis through liberal support of the Foreign Trade Financing Corporation to be organized for the purpose of supplying credit to Europe through which it may re-enter the markets of America and restore the balance of trade.

He explained that when this country stopped loaning money to Europe it automatically cut off our principal foreign markets, dammed up our products and brought about the congestion of goods and slowing down in production from which the country is now suffering.

Europe's problem of consumption is our problem of excess production.
Europe needs our products, our foods, and our raw materials for manufacturing. The banks cannot meet the situation because of the time element which would result in frozen credits in a financial system which must be kept liquid.

The people should re-establish the connection, he said, by subscribing to debentures, issued against the securities of the debtor nations and spread over a sufficient time to permit legitimate turnover.
A plan which is given expression in the Foreign Trade Finance Corporation with its $100,000,000 capital and borrowing capacity of $1,000,000,000.

VICTORY MEDALS ARRIVE.

The Victory Medal Office, United States Army, located in the clubrooms of Post No. 8, American Legion, Third and Spring streets, announces that a shipment of 3000 Victory medals for men who served in the Army during the late war has been received during the week. Every man bringing his own original discharge will be furnished one without delay. The American Legion posts are anxious that all men who have not received their medals do so, so that they have them for the ceremonies to be held on Decoration Day, May 30, and Independence Day, July 4.

DENY FISHERMEN'S PACT.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

AVAILON, April 8.—Emphatic denials were wired to the State Senate by the city of Avalon, the Avalon Motor Boat Club and the Catalina Chamber of Commerce that the game organization here had agreed to compromise with the commercial fishermen on the enforcement of the net fish and game laws covering District Twenty.

A wire was received here this morning from Ralph Bandini stating that the Senate had been advised that Avalon fishermen had effected a compromise with commercial fishermen agreeing to allow the former a strip three miles along the shoreline and three miles out at Avalon.

This caused great agitation in the city and lengthy telegrams were immediately dispatched to the Senate stating that Avalon does not desire the present law pertaining to its government reserve area changed, but on the contrary hopes that the Senate will enact such legislation as will assure that these laws will be rigidly enforced during the coming season in order that the game fish of Catalina waters may be preserved and the nation's sea food supply protected.

The telegrams were signed by the Mayor of Avalon, the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and every Avalon fisherman belonging to the Avalon Motor Boat Club.
